

SHEEP DEPARTMENT 2

1. Read General Rules, Livestock Rules and Health Regulations carefully. Animals will be inspected for general health before they are unloaded. Any animal rejected must be removed from the Fairgrounds.
2. Any animals penned prior to acceptance time on Thursday will be removed. No pens are reserved for individuals. Entries will be accepted between 4:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. on Thursday.
3. There is a $3.00 entry fee for each animal and each fleece entered. There is a $2.00 entry fee per person per department for static classes (Class V, Lots 20, 21 and 22). There is no entry fee for blocking, judging or fitting and showmanship lots, but contestants must follow regular entry process.
4. Yearlings and aged animals must have been owned or leased by the exhibitor on or before January 1 of the current year or be part of the club flock; fitting and showmanship animals prior to June 1 of the current year.
5. Ages of sheep will be computed as of September 1 of the previous year.
6. Registration and/or proof of ownership must be shown upon arrival with entries in the exhibitor's name only. Ear tags or tattoos will identify each animal and must match registration or proof of ownership.
7. Crossbreeds will be shown separately from purebreds.
8. All entries will be final, and no changes between age lots or contests will be accepted.
9. Troublesome rams must be removed after the ram lots are judged if requested by the Sheep Committee.
10. Exhibitors must bring their own hay, grain, bedding, feed and buckets. Water will be provided.
11. Pens should be labeled with the exhibitor's name, town and breed of sheep. Farm signs up to 2'x 3' are permissible. One club sign per club may be displayed for the benefit of the public.
12. Proper 4-H dress, tan pants or skirt and white shirt must be observed when showing.
13. Classes A through M shall be limited to two entries per Lot.
14. Halters may be used in all lots, but are not required.
15. In order to be eligible to exhibit, show or receive premiums in the Sheep Department, exhibitors must participate in Fitting, Showmanship and Judging classes.
16. When leaving Fairgrounds during Fair, exhibitor must sign out giving destination, time of departure, and anticipated time of return. If the 4-H'er is under 18 years of age, written parental consent is required.
17. The Sheep Committee has the right to allow exceptions to these rules as the occasion demands.
18. Wool Top Shepherds award is given to the exhibitor based on the following criteria: the overall appearance of the animals in their pens, including farm signs, pen cards, non-flammable decorations, demonstrated attention to the feeding and watering of the participant's animals, the condition of the pens being used by the exhibitor as well as the area outside those pens, and general helpfulness in keeping the barn and sheep area clean and neat.
19. The Sheep Department Chairman reserves the right to adjust breed classes as entries require. 13 breed classes, maximum, are allowed.
